

DEM / Mills

I also interviewed Jim Mills, who informed me that he knows who put the job up on him; that he is a detective, but Jim would not give me his name. Jim said he wrote this detective a letter that would make the detective worry. He said he was sure I had nothing to do in this matter, that he did not accuse me - The only thing he had against me was that I made inquiries from Burns' house as to the hour his boy, Danny, arrived home - After I explained to him, he was satisfied.

Jim Mills then told me about the Hindu coming to his house, and how hurriedly he left because he (Jim) tried to get a special officer to place him under arrest. Jim said that he has a high Official interested, who is advising him; but he would not give the name of the Official. Jim also said that he could prove through a woman who had clothes out upon the line, or was hanging out her wash, that she saw him out on the back-porch at about 8.50 p.m. He said it would be a good thing to work on Gorsline, as Gorsline was no good. Also that he (Jim) would be willing to let me have information after his friend had it first, and that if he knew who it was who killed his wife he would kill them, as no Jury would convict him - That the people in Somerville, had practically laid down on the case, and were doing nothing; that in a short while he would go and see Governor Silzer about it, and that if he wanted to, he has got enough on the Somerset County Officials to drive them all out of office - Also, if I write to the publication, "Black Mark," there is an article written in there by Charles Somerville, in the latter part of February, which relates to the Hall-Mills Case, and says that neither Mr. Mills or Mrs. Hall had anything to do with the murder.

I then interviewed Mrs. Tennyson, a sister of Mrs. Eleanor Mills, who lives at #187 Albany St., New Brunswick, N.J. She said she knew Eleanor and Mr. Hall were meeting one another - That on one occasion while Mrs. Mills
